ANGELA WOO, CONDUCTOR, is Director of Instrumental Music and Chair of the Visual and Performing Arts Department at John Adams Middle School. An alumna of UCLA, Ms. Woo earned the B.A. in Music Education/Piano Performance, the M.Ed. in Education, and the M.F.A. in Conducting. She also holds the M.A. in Educational Administration from CSUN. Ms. Woo has been invited to be lecturer, adjudicator, and clinician at various nationwide conferences and symposiums, and has served as guest conductor for several honor bands and orchestras throughout the country and internationally, including the 2014 California All-State Jr. High Concert Band, the 2016 Michigan All-State Middle School Band, and the 2019 and 2020 Honor Performance Series Middle and High School Orchestras in Carnegie Hall. Ms. Woo is recognized by the Santa Monica Rotary Club as the 2005 SMMUSD District Teacher of the Year, and has been honored as a 2012 Legion of Honor Laureate by the John Philip Sousa National Foundation.

SEAN GARNREITER, CONDUCTOR, is Assistant Director of Instrumental Music at John Adams Middle School where he has been on staff since 2011. Mr. Garnreiter earned his B.A. in Music Education from UCLA where he was Drum Major of the UCLA Bruin Marching Band. He served as a student teacher at JAMS in 2008, and was an elementary music teacher with the Los Angeles Unified School District where he also founded an instrumental music program at a middle school in South Central Los Angeles. After teaching in the LAUSD for three years, Mr. Garnreiter returned to JAMS as an Instructional Assistant and faculty member with the instrumental music program. He is a former member of the Pacific Crest and Santa Clara Vanguard Drum and Bugle Corps, and has been on staff with the UCLA Bruin Marching Band as a brass, woodwind, and marching clinician. Mr. Garnreiter is recognized by the Santa Monica Junior Chamber of Commerce as 2017 Outstanding Young Teacher of the Year.

JIM WANG, CONDUCTOR, is the Director of Orchestras at Lincoln Middle School. He teaches all levels of string instruments to students in the sixth through eighth grades. Before that, he was the strings teacher for the Rowland Unified School District where he traveled around various schools in the district to teach orchestra classes, and also had the privilege to direct the Rowland District Honor Orchestra. Mr. Wang completed his M.A. at USC with an emphasis on music education, and he attended Biola University where he earned a B.M. in violin performance. Mr. Wang also spent time abroad and studied music in Heidelberg, Germany with the concertmaster of the Heidelberg Philharmonic Orchestra, Thierry Stöckel and played and performed with the Heidelberg Stat Baroque Chamber Orchestra. Mr. Wang's love for teaching began when he traveled to Xi'an, China one summer to teach the under-privileged Chinese students the English language.

DR. THOMAS LEE, COORDINATOR, is Professor Emeritus and Director of Bands Emeritus from UCLA. Dr. Lee holds the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Conducting from the College-Conservatory of Music at the University of Cincinnati. He has been invited to guest conduct with All-State Bands and music festivals in all parts of the USA, Canada, Mexico, Western Europe, and Asia. Professor Lee has also given workshops on all aspects of conducting and interpretation of music with special emphasis in the area of non-verbal communication skills.
